

PahTum

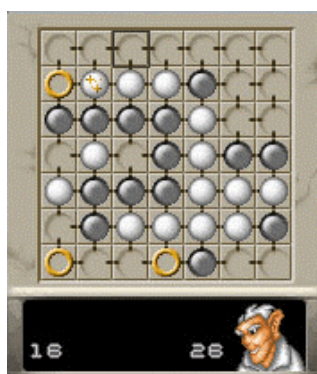

Description

Arkkadia, a prosperous and peaceful planet, is in turmoil. After many years of guidance by the wise Ardios, now retired from his position, the high council has to elect a new Arkkadian leader. As the leader of your homeland Patrxia you have been invited to the Palace of Wisdom to compete with six other candidates in the ancient game of PahTum. The winner of the game will so prove his worthiness of being the successor to the great leader Ardios.

Play against beautiful Lekirri, childish Kernil, alien Cirroon, mad scientist Bugool, rational Spheerius or Mahputam, master of AI. Each of them has special abilities that he will use against you. By winning the tournament, you conquer all lands and become a new leader of Arkkadia.

PahTum is an ancient game of wits and thoughts. The oldest gameboards were discovered in Mesopotamia and Assyria dated about 1800 BC.
